Scholarship Criteria

The Parsippany College Connect Scholarship is awarded to a high school senior who exemplifies the values of our online platform, which serves as a forum for Parsippany high school students to learn from and connect with Parsippany college students. The awardees should demonstrate prior active involvement in our local community, a desire to continue to engage with our local community in college, and a willingness to be a role model for advocacy and leadership. The awardees will be selected by the Leadership Team of Parsippany College Connect, and will be featured on our online platform and social media.

Judgement

The Leadership of Parsippany College Connect will decide the scholarship awardees. Applications will be assessed through a blind scoring process. PCC will be awarding 2, $375 scholarships: one for a student at Parsippany High, the other for a student at Parsippany Hills.
